

Finnish Society for Developmental and Stem Cell Biology (FSDSCB)

50 YEARS ANNIVERSARY SYMPOSIUM

17-18 September 2026

 Tieteiden Talo, Helsinki

Meet the researchers working on developmental biology and stem cells around Finland, and celebrate the 50 years from the foundation of the Finnish Society for Developmental and Stem Cell Biology!

Program highlights

Invited speakers:

Dr. Jesse Veenvliet: “Building towards understanding: from embryo models to principles of development (& back)”

Dr. Ulrika Marklund: “Different modes of Neural and Mesenchymal Cell Type Diversification in the Developing Gastrointestinal Tract”

50-Year Anniversary Lecture: Prof. Eero Lehtonen, a founding member and a former President of the Society

- All FSDSCB research groups are represented in the program
- Submit your abstract for a short talk or a flash talk by August 15th
- Best thesis award, FSDSCB honorary member award, 50-year anniversary lecture
- Symposium Dinner on Sept. 17th in Ravintola Sipuli Talvipuutarha

Sign up now!

Registration deadline:
August 15th, 2026

Join us!

To FSDSCB
membership:

Meeting is sponsored by

